3 Ways It Pays To Be a Preferred Client

Preferred Office Network is the largest network of independently owned business centers in North America with the most flexible terms in the industry. As the shared office space market continues to grow, we're sharing more about the benefits of being a Preferred client.

1. Access to over 600 business center locations, all governed by one master agreement. As a Preferred client, you'll sign one agreement that covers all business center locations. We value your time and know paperwork is the last thing you want standing in the way of occupying a new office. Our one, simple agreement has you covered wherever your business takes you.

2. One point of contact to partner with. Don't get overwhelmed in your search for workspace. Call your Corporate Account Manager with your need, and let them do the rest. They'll provide a list of available business centers, schedule tours, negotiate pricing, and handle all the details so you can focus on your business, not hunting down office space. If you have special requirements or configuration requests, we can usually find a way to accommodate these. When you're ready to vacate, just call your Account Manager, and they'll handle the rest. 3. One invoice for all lease agreements. Whether you occupy 3 business centers, or 30, imagine only having to pay one invoice every month. Our consolidated invoice details the activity at each location, but you only pay one bill, saving you time and keeping you organized.

Contact us today to learn more about becoming a Preferred client. We work with dozens of Fortune 1000 companies every day, who use our services to easily move in and out of the best office spaces in North America.
